

CONTENTS

|                                                                                                                                                                                             |     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| SABOTAGE: CRIMINAL-LEGAL RESEARCH OF THE JURIDICAL CHARACTERISTICS OF THE CRIME COMPOSITION(Bodnaruk O. M., Toma M. H.).....                                                            | 1   |
| 1. Legal analysis of objective characteristics of sabotage.....                                                                                                                             | 2   |
| 2. Criminal-legal description of subjective characteristics of sabotage.....                                                                                                                | 37  |
| THEORETICAL AND APPLIED FOUNDATIONS OF CRIMINAL ANALYSIS AS A TOOL FOR THE DIGITALIZATION OF MODERN CRIMINALISTICS (Vasylova O. V.).....                                                    | 60  |
| 1. Prerequisites for the Emergence and Formation of the Theoretical and Methodological Foundations of Criminal Analysis in the Context of the Digitalization of Criminalistics .....        | 61  |
| 2. Analysis of Existing Methods for Solving the Problem and Formulation of the Task of Improving Analytical Tools and Approaches Used in Criminal Analysis in the Digital Environment ..... | 66  |
| PROBLEMATIC ISSUES OF SPECIAL CONFISCATION IN UKRAINE AND ITS COMPLIANCE WITH EUROPEAN UNION STANDARDS (Vynnyk A. O.) .....                                                                 | 86  |
| 1. Problems of criminal law regulation of the institution of special confiscation in Ukraine .....                                                                                          | 86  |
| 2. The status of Ukraine's implementation of the European Union's requirements for improving special confiscation as a prerequisite for its reform .....                                    | 90  |
| HANS GROSS'S VISIONS REGARDING THE SUBJECT AND SYSTEM OF CRIMINALISTICS AND MODERN IDEAS (Volobuev A. F.) .....                                                                             | 97  |
| 1. The subject and system of criminalistics in the views of Hans Gros .....                                                                                                                 | 97  |
| 2. Modern ideas about the object, subject and system of criminalistics.....                                                                                                                 | 104 |
| LEGAL REGULATION OF ANTI-CORRUPTION EXPERTISE AS A PREVENTIVE INSTRUMENT IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION OF UKRAINE (Dasiuk V. V.).....                                                            | 114 |
| 1. Corruption Prevention as a Functional Direction of Public Administration .....                                                                                                           | 115 |
| 2. Evolution of Legal Regulation of Anti-Corruption Expertise in Ukraine.....                                                                                                               | 119 |
| 3. Practical Guidelines for Enhancing the Effectiveness of Anti-Corruption Expertise.....                                                                                                   | 122 |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                           |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| TRANSNATIONAL HUMAN TRAFFICKING NETWORKSIN THE CONTEXT OF GLOBAL RISKS: CRIMINOLOGICALCHARACTERISTICS AND CRIMINAL LAW CHALLENGESOF COUNTERACTION (Zharovska H. P.) .....                     | 127 |
| 1. The Criminological Nature and Transformation of TransnationalHuman Trafficking Networks under Conditions of Global Risks.....                                                                      | 129 |
| 2. Criminal Law Qualification of Offences, Participants in TransnationalNetworks, and Forms of Human Exploitation: Contemporary Problemsand Trends.....                                           | 138 |
| 3. International and European Standards of Criminal Law Counteractionto Human Trafficking and Their Significance for the National LegalSystem (the Case of Ukraine).....                          | 148 |
| JUVÉNILE DÉLINQUANCE AND RESTORATIVE JUSTICE:THEORETICAL, LEGAL AND PSYCHOLOGICAL ASPECTS(Zinsu O. I., Shust H. P.).....                                                                          | 168 |
| 1. The state of scientific development of the issue of non-state crimein the works of modern scientists .....                                                                                         | 169 |
| 2. Adolescent and juvenile delinquency:conceptual provisions and legal realities .....                                                                                                                | 171 |
| 3. Modern institutions influencing juvenile delinquency .....                                                                                                                                             | 174 |
| INTERDISCIPLINARY APPROACHES TO THE DEVELOPMENTOF LEGAL, ECONOMIC AND GOVERNANCE SYSTEMSIN THE CONTEXT OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE TRANSFORMATIONUNDER CONTEMPORARY CHALLENGES (ZInukhova V. M.)..... | 180 |
| 1. Theoretical and methodological foundations of an interdisciplinaryapproach in the study of the transformation of criminal justice .....                                                            | 181 |
| 2. The influence of economic and managerial factors on the functioningof the criminal justice system in the face of modern challenges .....                                                           | 183 |
| 3. Legal mechanisms and prospects for the development of criminaljustice in the context of martial law and European integration processes.....                                                        | 186 |
| THE CONCEPT OF THE FORM OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW:FROM THE DOGMATIC TRADITION TO THE MORPHOLOGICALPARADIGM (Kolpakov V.).....                                                                         | 195 |
| 1. The Dogmatic Tradition of Understanding the Form of Lawand Its Influence on Administrative Law Doctrine.....                                                                                       | 196 |
| 2. Methodological Limits of the Traditional Understandingof the Form of Administrative Law.....                                                                                                       | 201 |
| 3. The Transition from the Dogmatic Traditionto the Morphological Vision.....                                                                                                                         | 205 |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                 |     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 4. The Form of Administrative Law as the Invariant Framework of the Legal Shaping of Public Authority Action .....                                                                              | 207 |
| 5. The Morphological Paradigm as a Diagnostic and Design Model for the Future of Administrative Law.....                                                                                        | 210 |
| 6. The Doctrinal Significance of the Concept of the Form of Administrative Law.....                                                                                                             | 212 |
| PROTECTION OF THE COGNITIVE AND DIGITAL INTEGRITY OF THE INDIVIDUAL (Kravchuk S. M.).....                                                                                                       |     |
| 1. Criminal Law Protection of Human Neurorights (Theoretical Foundations for the Criminalization of Interference into the Mental Sphere) .....                                                  | 221 |
| 2. The Doctrine of “Digital Dignity” (Protection Against Algorithmic Manipulation and Deepfakes).....                                                                                           | 226 |
| 3. The Right to Non-Algorithmic Existence (Legal and Theoretical Justification of Infringements on the Autonomy of Choice).....                                                                 | 231 |
| THE THEORY OF CRIMINAL LIABILITY IN THE AGE OF THE TECHNOLOGICAL SINGULARITY (Kravchuk S. M., Kovalchyn D. Yu.) .....                                                                           |     |
| 1. The Anthropocentric Paradigm of Criminal Law in the Age of Digitalization: A Theoretical and Methodological Justification for the Limits of Delegating Justice to Algorithms.....            | 240 |
| 2. The transformation of the concept of the perpetrator of a criminal offense: the legal nature of the “electronic person” and the limits of its liability (the quasi-subjectivity of AI) ..... | 244 |
| 3. The criminal law doctrine of “distributed culpability”: methodology for establishing causation in the actions of autonomous intelligent systems ...                                          | 249 |
| POST-GENOCIDE “JUSTICE” IN RWANDA: NOT TO PUNISH, RECONCILE (Kuzmin E. E.).....                                                                                                                 |     |
| 1. In the face of the Rwandan genocide and its aftermath: shaping the context of dealing with international crimes .....                                                                        | 259 |
| 2. Global community’s “international response”: The International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda .....                                                                                            | 263 |
| 3. Rwanda’s “domestic response”: The national courts and “ gacaca ” .....                                                                                                                | 267 |
| MEDIATION INSTITUTE: EUROPEAN STANDARDS, NATIONAL REGULATION AND APPLICATION PRACTICE (Melenko O. V.).....                                                                                      |     |
| 1. International legal standards and legislative regulation of mediation in Ukraine .....                                                                                                       | 282 |
| 2. Practice of applying mediation and prospects for the development of the institution of mediation in Ukraine .....                                                                            | 287 |

|                                                                                                                                                                                 |     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| HANS GROSS'S VISIONS: CRIMINOLOGICAL ASPECTSOF RESTORATIVE JUVENILE JUSTICE(Mytrofanov I. I., Svetlichnyi I. V.) .....                                                  | 298 |
| 1. Criminological Basis of Restorative Justice .....                                                                                                                            | 300 |
| 2. Praxeological Aspect and Strategy of Implementationof the Recovery Paradigm in Ukraine .....                                                                             | 304 |
| INVESTIGATIVE EXPERIMENT DURING PRE-TRIALINVESTIGATION: USING SPECIAL KNOWLEDGEAND INNOVATIVE TECHNOLOGIES TO RECONSTRUCTTHE CRIME SCENE (Nehrebetskyi V. V.) ..... | 310 |
| 1. Investigative experiment – a procedural method of verifyingthe evidence obtained using special knowledge .....                                                           | 312 |
| 2. The role of Hans Gross' concept and special knowledgein conducting an investigative experiment .....                                                                     | 314 |
| 3. The importance of forensic reconstruction and innovative3D modeling technologies during an investigative experiment .....                                                | 320 |
| «FEATURES OF INSPECTING THE SCENE OF THE INCIDENTDURING THE INVESTIGATION OF MILITARY CRIMINALOFFENSES” (Popovich M. V.) .....                                          | 330 |
| 1. Theoretical and legal foundations of investigating militarycriminal offenses .....                                                                                       | 331 |
| 2. Criminalistic features of the scene examination .....                                                                                                                        | 334 |
| 3. International experience and cooperation in investigatingmilitary criminal offenses .....                                                                                | 343 |
| DOMESTIC VIOLENCE: CRIMINOLOGICAL CHARACTERISTICSAND COUNTERMEASURES (Prodan T. V.) .....                                                                                   | 355 |
| 1. Criminological characteristics of domestic violence .....                                                                                                                    | 355 |
| 2. Countering domestic violence:legal framework and implementing entities .....                                                                                             | 368 |
| POSSIBILITIES OF FORENSIC EXAMINATIONSIN CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS REGARDING THE INVESTIGATIONOF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE (Ryashko O. V.) .....                                     | 382 |
| 1. Some issues of forensic medical and forensic biologicalexaminations in the investigation of domestic violence .....                                                      | 383 |
| 2. Practical aspects of forensic psychiatric and forensic psychologicalexaminations during the investigation of domestic violence .....                                     | 386 |

|                                                                                                                                                                                    |     |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| CONDUCTING AN EXAMINATION AT THE STAGEOF PRE-TRIAL INVESTIGATION AND IN COURT (Stratii O. V.).....                                                                             | 393 |
| 1. The importance of ordering an expert examination withinthe framework of criminal proceedings .....                                                                          | 395 |
| 2. Problematic issues that arise during the ordering and conductingof examinations at the stage of pre-trial investigation and in court.....                                   | 407 |
| CHALLENGES AND PROSPECTS FOR THE IMPLEMENTATIONOF EUROPEAN STANDARDS IN COMBATING CRIME IN UKRAINEUNDER CONTEMPORARY CONDITIONS(Tymchyshyn A. M., Bezpalko S. V.)..... | 426 |
| 1. Theoretical foundations of the European union's criminal policyand international legal standards in the field of crime preventionand combating crime .....              | 427 |
| 2. The state of implementation of european standardsin combating crime: achievements and gaps.....                                                                             | 430 |
| 3. Challenges of harmonizing the criminal and criminal procedurelegislation of Ukraine with European union law .....                                                           | 432 |
| 4. Anti-corruption and judicial reform as preconditionsfor effective crime prevention and combating crime .....                                                                | 436 |
| 5. Combating organized and transnational crime:challenges and prospects.....                                                                                                   | 438 |
| 6. Prospects for implementation and practical recommendations .....                                                                                                                | 441 |
| THE STATE OF SCIENTIFIC DEVELOPMENT OF THE PROBLEMOF PREVENTING WAR CRIMES (Tkachenko P. I.) .....                                                                             | 448 |
| 1. The state of scientific research on military criminal offenses .....                                                                                                            | 448 |
| 2. The limitations of the criminological approach in research.....                                                                                                                 | 456 |
| 3. The relevance of the development of criminological research .....                                                                                                               | 462 |
| THE METHODOLOGICAL LIMITS OF AN INVESTIGATOR'SREFLECTIVE THINKING IN THE PROCESS OF MODERNFORENSIC INQUIRY (Chernov O. V.).....                                            | 469 |
| 1. Theoretical and methodological foundations of an investigator'sreflective thinking within the framework of forensic inquiry.....                                            | 471 |
| 2. Methodological constraints and functional limits of reflective thinkingin investigative activity .....                                                                      | 480 |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                        |     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| CREATION OF DANGER AS A CRIMINAL LAW PHENOMENON:ISSUES OF THEORY AND LEGISLATIVE REGULATION(Shevchuk A. V.).....                                                                               | 495 |
| 1. The category of “creation of danger” in the criminal legislationof Ukraine: essence and genesis .....                                                                                           | 495 |
| 2. Creation of danger as a constitutive element of a criminal offense:prospects for updating the provisions of the Criminal Code of Ukraine.....                                                   | 507 |
| THE CONCEPT OF PRIORITIZATION IN CRIMINALISTICSAND FORENSIC EXAMINATION: VISIONS OF HANS GROSSAND CURRENT PROBLEMS OF TODAY (Shevchuk V. M.) .....                                             | 521 |
| 1. Historical and praxeological approaches in the formationof criminalistics and their influence on the concept of prioritizationin the context of the scientific heritage of Hans Gross ..... | 522 |
| 2. Current areas of research on prioritization in criminalisticsin modern conditions of military threats and digital transformations.....                                                          | 527 |
| 3. Modern understanding and perspectives of prioritizationin criminology and forensic examination.....                                                                                             | 533 |
| PRE-TRIAL, PROBATION AND PRISON PROBATIONIN THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM: CURRENT STATUSAND PROSPECTS FOR DEVELOPMENT (Yushchuk O. I.).....                                                     | 545 |
| 1. Pre-trial probation: legal framework and practice .....                                                                                                                                             | 546 |
| 2. Supervised probation within the system of criminal law measures .....                                                                                                                               | 554 |
| 3. Prison probation as a means of preparing prisoners for release .....                                                                                                                                | 563 |
| UNIFIED STANDARDS FOR FORENSIC DOCUMENTATIONOF CRIMES IN COMBAT ZONES: COMPARATIVE ANALYSISOF PRACTICES IN BOSNIA, KOSOVO, SYRIA, AND IRAQ(Kaliuga K. V.) .....                            | 575 |
| 1. Theoretical foundations and formation of military forensics .....                                                                                                                                   | 580 |
| 2. Subject, features and technological dimension of military forensics .....                                                                                                                           | 582 |
| 3. Development and practical significance of military forensicsin the context of armed conflict in Ukraine.....                                                                                    | 583 |
| 4. Problems of unification of methodology and prospectsfor development .....                                                                                                                       | 587 |